POULTRY GUIDELINES

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Refer to the GENERAL & ANIMAL RULES AND REGULATIONS.

HEALTH REGULATIONS:

- Do NOT vaccinate birds within 30 days of the show.
- The Nebraska Poultry Disease Act requires that all out-of-state poultry entering exhibitions or entering the showroom for sale MUST be Pullorum-Typhoid clean. SEND PAPERS WITH ENTRY.
- We will not accept entries of birds from any quarantined location for any poultry disease.
- Any birds showing signs of sickness during the show will be removed from the showroom.

SHOW RULES:

- Neither the Douglas County Fair nor its offers will be responsible for any accidents. Loss, sickness, or injury to any bird brought to the show.
- This will be an out-of-box show. NO CAGES WILL BE PROVIDED.

- All show boxes with names on them must be completely covered up or taken out of the building. The Douglas County Fair is not responsible for stolen birds or show boxes.
- Douglas County Fair reserves the right to refuse any entry.
- No one will be permitted in the aisle during judging.
- No one is permitted to handle birds other than their owners without the permission of the owner or show management.
- Animals entered in showmanship must also be registered in another division.
- There is NO LIMIT to the number of entries an exhibitor can exhibit.
- Pet Class/Barnyard Beauties – this class is reserved only for birds not previously entered/exhibited in any other breed class.

CARE & RESPONSIBILITY OF POULTRY:

- ANY ANIMAL ON THE GROUNDS MUST HAVE WATER AND FEED TO ENSURE THEIR HEALTH.
- Only water may be sprayed and/or applied to the animal.
- The open Douglas County Fair will be a non-terminal show. After the show, exhibitors will take animals home.
